POTTERS PICNIC--This event was scheduled rain or shine, and it was rain and shine all day--most of us experienced four or five showers on the way up, but Porscherers don't mind a little dampness, and then too, there was the indoor pool, so who cares if it rains? The brats were hot and sizzly, the beer cold and plentiful, the pool was invigorating, and the concours challenging--all this was exceeded only by the hospitality of Wayne and Sally.

All of the little Porsches had been bathed, in anticipation of the Concours, and most of them had been dripping wet three or four times that day, but after much towelling, the Concours began. It was conducted by that Concoursist of all Concoursists, Hal Cowan.

This is a real family day--probably the one time in the year when all the younger set comes out. They are an extremely well-behaved group of young people, and our members should be very proud of their offspring. Amazing how these children change from year to year, or should I say, from picnic to picnic. A real happy day, and we owe the Potters a big THANK-YOU for showing us such a fine time!
